

BEGINNER'S FLY TYING CLASSES

OFFERED BY

ALDO LEOPOLD CHAPTER TROUT UNLIMITED

Five different classes. New fly patterns taught in each class. Experienced Instructors.

Beaver Dam Community Library

311 N. Spring Street, Beaver Dam, WI 53916

6:00 pm to 8:00 pm each night

JAN. 13, 20 & 27; FEB. 3 & 10

All five lessons for $30 per person

All proceeds go toward local Habitat Improvement

Classes are free to youths under age 17 when accompanied by a paid adult.

Fly patterns for many WI fish species will be taught. The Chapter will supply all hooks and materials. Students should bring their own fly tying vise, black thread and standard tying tools. If a vise and tools are not accessible, there will be a limited supply which can be loaned. Call Steve Hill for more details at: 920-261-4005/days.

Space is limited! Use the form below to reserve your spot now or call Steve Hill at 920-261-4005.

Enclosed is my check for $30. Reserve my spot for the ALCTU Beginner's Fly Tying Classes.

Make check payable to Aldo Leopold Chapter
 Send to: Steve Hill, 107 South Fifth Street,
 Watertown, WI 53094

name _____

address _____

phone _____

e-mail _____

I've never been a TU member but might be interested. Tell me about your free 1-year membership offer.

I will be bringing a youth under age 17 for free admission to the classes.